For centuries the religious landscape of the Caribbean has been examined through the lens of African and European influences often overlooking the full extent of the enduring contributions made by the region's first peoples An Indelible History challenges this historical omission offering the first comprehensive exploration of Amerindian religious influence on Afro-Caribbean traditions with a particular focus on Palo Monte drawing on historical archives oral traditions and decolonial theory Alejandro Casas unveils the hidden intersections between African-derived religions and Amerindian spiritual beliefs and practices from sacred tobacco rituals to geomantic symbols and ancestral veneration This book repositions indigenous Caribbean agency at the heart of the region's religious transformations more than a historical study An Indelible History reveals how these suppressed traditions persist adapt and continue to shape contemporary Afro-Caribbean spirituality in ways often unrecognized by recovering these forgotten histories Casas not only rewrites the past but also redefines the present demonstrating how cultural memory and spiritual resilience endure across generations deeply researched yet accessible An Indelible History reclaims a forgotten chapter of the Caribbean's spiritual past and highlights its lasting influence on Afro-Caribbean religious traditions today this is a must read for scholars practitioners and anyone interested in the complex cultural entanglements that continue to shape Afro-Caribbean religious traditions

Cecilia Valdés is arguably the most important novel of 19th century Cuba originally published in New York City in 1882 Cirilo Villaverde's novel has fascinated readers inside and outside Cuba since the late 19th century in this new English translation a vast landscape emerges of the moral political and sexual depravity caused by slavery and colonialism set in the Havana of the 1830s the novel introduces us to Cecilia a beautiful light-skinned mulatta who is being pursued by the son of a Spanish slave trader named Leonardo unbeknownst to the two they are the children of the same father eventually Cecilia gives in to Leonardo's advances she becomes pregnant and gives birth to a baby girl when Leonardo who gets bored with Cecilia after a while agrees to marry a white upper class woman Cecilia vows revenge a mulatto friend and suitor of hers kills Leonardo and Cecilia is thrown into prison as an accessory to the crime for the contemporary reader Helen Lane's masterful translation of Cecilia Valdés opens a new window into the intricate problems of race relations in Cuba and the Caribbean there are the elite social circles of European and New World whites the rich culture of the free people of color the class to which Cecilia herself belonged and then the slaves divided among themselves between those who were born in africa and those who were born in the new world and those who worked on the sugar plantation and those who worked in the households of the rich people in havana cecilia valdés thus presents a vast portrait of sexual social and racial oppression and the lived experience of spanish colonialism in cuba
