nine short stories centred round a golf club and related by the oldest member who sits in a corner observing the highs and lows of younger members in matters of golf and love characters appear in more than one story a children s novel by the italian author edmondo de amicis who was a novelist journalist short story writer and poet the novel is his best known work to this day having been inspired by his own children furio and ugo who had been schoolboys at the time it is set during the italian unification and includes several patriotic themes it was issued by treves on october 18 1886 the first day of school in italy and rose to immediate success through its investigation of social issues such as poverty heart shows the influence of left wing ideologies on de amicis work he was later to join the italian socialist party because of this the book remained influential and the staple of many textbooks in countries of the eastern bloc on the other hand the book s strong evocation of italian nationalism and patriotism also made it very welcome in fascist italy he novel is written in a diary form as told by enrico bottini an 11 year old primary school student in turin with an upper class background who is surrounded by classmates of working class origin the entire chronological setting corresponds to the third grade season of 1881 82 enrico says it has been four years since the death of victor emmanuel ii king of italy and the succession by umberto i and also tells about the death of giuseppe garibaldi which happened in 1882 enrico s parents and older sister silvia interact with him as written in his diary as well as his teacher who assigns him with homework that deals with several different stories of children throughout the italian states who should be seen as role models these stories are then given in the book as enrico comes upon reading them every story revolves around a different moral value the most prominent of which are helping those in need having great love and respect for family and friends and patriotism these are called the monthly stories and appear at the end of every school month a ravishing celebratory and funny history of the human heart disarming canny and beguiling it deserves to become a cult book independent there is a universal human fascination with the heart which no other organ has inspired not the brain not the eyes the heart is simply a lump of muscle a pump and yet it is the home of love and courage and religion and soul and almost any other human feeling you care to think of this is louisa young s starting point and she goes on to produce a book that is readable erudite funny intriguing stimulating and made to be given from the heart as a gift the book is in four parts like the heart the physical heart the religious heart the heart in art and the written heart the first part covers amongst other things anatomy and the history of ideas about how the heart works weaknesses of the heart and disease surgery and transplants and other animals hearts the heart as the seat of life the second has the bleeding heart of christ pagan sacrifice saints attributes the heart in islam hinduism buddhism judaism etc the heart as the seat of the soul the third looks at votive art the heart fruit thing sublimated visual hearts kitsch advertising and logos cartoons the heart as visual symbol the fourth explores expressions of love in literature from the greeks musings on eros and agape via myths and legends and the invention of courtly romance to the romantic novel also song lyrics the heart in writing the mind is an amazing thing but it is just part of the heart let me explain when the bible refers to the metaphorical heart it includes our mind our thought life our desire our emotions and our will our decision making this makes up our character who we really are in this writing i would like to look at the heart of man and then the heart of god the first three parts of this writing is based on three messages given by charlie fizer at the hiawatha bible chapel in wabasha minnesota i have added my thoughts to his teachings plus seeing his teaching was about the heart of man i am adding a fourth part on the heart of god to round off his lessons on the heart of man charlie fizer is retired from emmaus bible college and is now serving the lord by traveling to small churches across the us and canada teaching god s word he also holds a position as chaplain in dubuque ia where he and his wife darlene live charlie and darlene also served as missionaries in japan for many years as we start to look at the heart of man we see something that happens over and over again in all mankind and this includes men and women alike when a person sins it happens like this first the thought is conceived in the mind we think about something like david did when he looked at bathsheba and started to lust after her then that thought started to develop within the heart it became a desire of the heart then by the will one acted on that desire so becoming an act of sin this is the case for every sin we commit or action we take whether good or bad it starts in the thought process of the heart which is called the mind we are so programmed to think when we hear the word heart we start to think about the organ in our chest that pumps the blood throughout our bodies this is true but when we hear the word in the bible it always mean the most inner part of man s makeup except for two places where it meant the organ that pumps blood it is who you really are it has to do with your intellect feelings your will and all your desires it also can mean the most center part of you it is where everything in you comes from let us look at the way we use this word and some of the meanings the idioms we use first at heart we use this in reality fundamentally basically then when we say break someone s heart we mean to cause someone to be devastated by sorrow or disappointment if you say i can say that by heart you mean you can do it entirely from memory there are so many more like this eat your heart out have a heart have one s heart in the right place lose one s heart to and this list can go on and on all this idioms deal with what we are talking about here if you don t think this subject is important just think of this the word heart is found 835 times and is in 775 verses in the new king james bible nkjv a side note i did a search on biblegateway com and searched the entire bible for the word heart in the new king james version bible and it is found 926 times in any case it is found many time let me ask some questions have you ever questioned the motivation of your heart or have you ever thought yourself to be something then maybe you have never read verses like for if anyone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing he deceives himself galatians 6 3 or if anyone among you thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart this one s religion is useless james 1 26 maybe one last verse the heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked who can know it jeremiah 17 9 wow this should make us question our hearts all the time but the truth is not many of us do this we trust our hearts even though the bible tells us not to this will lead us down the wrong path every time let us try to understand the heart of man by what the scriptures tell us about it first the heart is the thinking aspect of man we read in proverbs 23 7 nkjv for as he thinks in his heart so is he then jesus asks in the new testament for out of the heart proceed evil thoughts and again he said why do you think evil in your hearts there are so many scriptures that tell us this matthew 9 4 15 19 24 48 luke 2 19 just to mention a few now the question is does it make a difference in the way i think what does my eternal destiny have to do in the way i think or maybe to put it another way am i responsible for the way i think i say a big yes again the scriptures tell us affirmative for to be carnally minded is death but to be spiritually minded is life and peace because the carnal mind is enmity against god for it is not subject to the law of god nor indeed can be romans 8 6 nkjv remember the mind is part of the heart whatever things are true whatever things are just whatever things are pure whatever things are lovely whatever things are of good report if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy meditate on these things philippians 4 8 nkjv i believe there is a lot said about our thought life because that is where sin starts we have to remember because of the fall our heart changed we need a heart transplant which we will talk about later now if our thought life is wrong it will now make our actions wrong even when we think we are doing good sin enters in by way of pride and pride is sin are we messed up or what all right now after we have wrong thoughts then our desires and will come into play our thoughts control our desires an emotion which in turn controls our will our actions with all this in mind let us move on with this subject we are going to start a three part study plus one on the heart which i described above let us start with this scripture and charlie fizer s first message
