from the author of the bestseller A Man After God's Own Heart more than 100,000 copies sold, a survey of God's priorities for leaders as exhibited in the life of Nehemiah, the Bible is filled with amazing people, and Nehemiah stands out prominently among them. What made him so effective, so influential, it starts with knowing what God desires in a leader. From Nehemiah's example, readers will learn 15 ways to lead with purpose. Among them are giving direction to your leadership by cultivating a vision for the future, solidifying your leadership by recognizing the value of conviction, refining your leadership by acquiring problem-solving skills, validating your leadership by pursuing personal integrity, and extending your leadership by understanding the power of motivation. Because it is God who enables us, these great qualities are accessible to every believer. Readers will experience real fulfillment as they take steps toward becoming God's kind of leader.

Dr. Wilson and Patricia Berry did a masterful job outlining the resilience of the military spouse by highlighting some of the consistent challenges of the military spouse. This book is a practical guide to living and understanding leadership collaboration that must take place behind the awards, promotion, multiple deployments, and frequent moves that spouses endure. We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little of each other everywhere. This was an amazing time, and I took a bit of each one of you with me. Boy, did we give them a run for their money during this course! LOL! Pamela A. Wilson, PhD, was a great instructor and did a good job in keeping us in line. We are each others' strength and wisdom. Blessed to have served this great nation with such blessed souls. I miss you all so much, but I will always carry you all in my heart.
