a spiritual anthology drawn from the greek and russian traditions concerned in particular with the most frequently used and best loved of all orthodox prayers the jesus prayer texts are taken chiefly from the letters of bishop theopan the recluse along with many other writers the anthologion is an eastern orthodox prayer book that uniquely includes a treasury of selections from the riches of orthodox prayer and worship including the book of hours horologion the book of eight tones octoechos the common services of saints general menaion selections from the paschal season triodion and pentecostarion traditional morning and evening prayers topical prayers for different occasions and more in the 3rd edition the festal menaion full psalter and other features have been added suitable for use individually or with a group this monumental book aims to fill the place that the breviary or liturgy of the hours fills for western christians offering the full daily office of prayer in a slightly simplified form with texts for special feast days and seasons it is a prayer library in a single book the author submitted these twelve articles to the word the periodical of the antiochian orthodox christian archdiocese of north america and the magazine published five of the essays the eastern christian love of the beautiful can be a companion on your own spiritual journey a collection of writings by monks from the fourth to fifteenth centuries the philokalia more than any other text reflects the eastern church's interpretation of the bible's meaning simply translated the title means love of the beautiful which reflects the text's emphasis on mystical and contemplative practices to engage all of our senses in the acts of worship and prayer this introduction to the wisdom of the philokalia illuminates a text that until now has intimidated the general reader in its scholarly translations from greek and russian allyne smith focuses his thoughtful selection on seven themes that recur throughout the five volume work repentance the heart prayer the jesus prayer the passions stillness and theosis smith's enlightening accessible facing page commentary fills in the historical and spiritual context clarifies core teachings including the eastern understanding of salvation and draws connections to modern day practices such as contemplative prayer now you can experience the spiritual wisdom of the philokalia even if you have no previous knowledge of eastern christianity this skylight illuminations edition takes you on a journey through this beloved text showing you how the teachings of eastern monks can help you become by grace what god is by nature from the author the christian way is a way of metamorphosis that leads from egoism to love in this important work the reader will find a treasure trove of ancient spiritual wisdom from the christian east still little known to the western world the first thousand years of christianity taught a transformational psychotherapeutic theology which has been virtually lost to our part of the world the author's exceptional breadth of knowledge and scholarship in the field of eastern orthodox spirituality offers the reader direct contact with the spiritual masters who were the grace filled light bearers of this universal truth originally made known by yeshua the anointed one the reader will find countless citations pearls of wisdom gathered here in a unique fashion along with the author's own profound understanding of these teachings that have immediate impact on daily human life and the power to awaken and transform the consciousness of every human being discourse and practice strives to stretch the boundaries of commonly accepted notions of philosophical discourse in order to introduce comparative considerations it is united by a concern to tease out the philosophical discourse and practices which inhere in seemingly unphilosophical texts these texts range from ethnographical materials to mythical and fictive narratives and finally to explicitly theoretical traditions each author in attending to the details of his or her area study strives to demonstrate the implicit and explicit philosophical agendas at play the comparative examples offer valuable insights for how discourse can be redefined one consistent assumption presented here is that the element of practice which has long been posed in opposition to theory must be treated as an integral aspect of the philosophical import of any tradition historical traditions covered include east asia papua new guinea and tibet as well as the more familiar territory of western disciplinary fields
