the arrival of three white feathers publicly brands Harry Feversham as a coward set in the 1880s this is the exciting tale of passion and courage which follows Feversham across England, Ireland, and Egypt as he strives to regain his love, friends, and above all his honor

A. E. W. Mason's The Four Feathers is a gripping tale set against the backdrop of British colonialism and military adventure in the late 19th century. Written in a vivid narrative style that blends rich descriptions with psychological depth, the novel explores themes of honor, courage, and the complexities of friendship. W. Mason, an English writer born in 1865, was not only a novelist but also a playwright and a prominent journalist. His own experiences in the military and his travels informed his writing.
