only a week after a fierce battle in the abandoned scrapyard against the wicked horde of large insect bots known as the others culminating in their destruction when the huge mars biosphere spaceship blasted its way out of the scrapyard alex faraway waits impatiently for his long missing father s promised return from that planet but dart alex s large robotic guardian dragonfly is unsure if the sinister creatures from his own past are gone for good the robot flies regular patrols over the 100 acre scrapyard until one morning he abruptly disappears alex goes in search of his adventurous friend unaware that the plot to invade mars and destroy the last remaining martians before they awaken from their hibernation time tombs is far from finished the battle from the previous week has only added weight to the might of the others and has triggered the arrival in the scrapyard of an ever more powerful robot one with brutish motivation to complete the creation of a deadly machine from ten thousand years ago and now not only is mars in their sites but earth is as well something new powerful and frightening is also happening to alex faraway with each passing day and each time he uses the strange martian made device called a luss his nightly dreams of an ancient people long forgotten are growing more physical in nature as the glass tunnels blur the immutable barrier between past and present dreams and reality the ghosts and the nethlins are coming and all the while the unknown rogue world the shadowy planet x draws ever nearer to its ten thousand year close encounter with mars what mysteries from the distant past does that strange glittering world hold grayeson manor has been a sign of enduring strength for many years when lord grayeson is called back to his homeland the large estate is left in the hands of his painfully debilitated wife myrnie during the long years of his absence she lovingly oversees the manor and raises her twin sons who are approaching manhood when a horseback ride ends tragically for one of the young men on the estate myrnie must face the fact that her son charles martin is choosing an increasingly dangerous course one that threatens the future of grayeson manor and its people charless disturbing behaviors plus the arrival of a beautiful neighbor catherine hampton create a growing rift between him and his younger twin john paul myrnie must lean on her husbands invisible presence as she plans for the traditional christmas ball an evening that becomes more and more pivotal to this allegorical tale set in 1812

a trenchant and thought provoking account of the death of empire by one of our finest historians the collapse of western colonial empires after the second world war led to any number of vicious struggles for power whose bloody consequences haunt us still acclaimed historian michael burleigh s brilliant analytic skills and clear eye for common themes underpins this powerful account of those struggles he takes us on a historical journey from palestine to pakistan from cuba to indo china and reframes mid 20th century history by forcing us to look away from the cold war to the hot wars that continue to afflict us the result is a dazzling work of history which examines the death of colonialism with passion insight and genuine understanding of what it feels like to be caught in the middle of realpolitik
