an interactive multimedia text that introduces students to reading and writing at the college level

read write connect provides integrated instruction in reading and writing paragraphs and essays complete coverage of research and grammar and a thematic reader full of high interest selections students will want to both read and write about the text begins with a walk through of the reading and writing processes and then moves on to a series of reading and writing workshop chapters providing in depth coverage of key topics like finding main ideas and drafting and organizing an essay throughout the text demonstrates that academic processes are recursive for example drafting is not a phase or stage a writer finishes or completes drafting continues as the writer revises based on reading and reflection the structure of the text reflects this recursivity as students move from the early chapters to later chapters they reinforce and expand upon earlier learning digging deeper into the material and their own ideas and building confidence along the way the first text in a two part series for the integrated reading and writing course read write connect book 1 offers carefully and thoroughly integrated instruction for reading and writing at the paragraph to essay level with scaffolded pedagogy and a flexible structure that reflects the recursive nature of reading and writing processes the text allows instructors to easily differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all students it offers intensive practice in the basic skills of reading comprehension and summary writing and then helps students build on those skills to respond to texts critically and analytically in their own college level paragraphs and short essays launchpad solo for readers and writers can be packaged with read write connect book 1 at no additional cost allowing you to more efficiently track students progress with reading writing and grammar skills in an active learning arc that complements the book using a simple and direct approach the quick college guide gives readers concise step by step instruction on the essential skills of how to read write and study because the information in the guide is so basic and necessary all readers will benefit from the information and skills relayed in the chapters covering details on reading test taking lectures responsive writing analysis lab reports and abstracts using the internet research and research paper writing and documentation the book is designed to include basic reading writing and study skills in one handy reference written with ease of use and accessibility in mind the guide lessens apprehension encourages learning and motivates readers at any level of learning a step by step approach makes the book more approachable and easier to use than traditional references which tend to be heavy on grammatical terminology and academic language reading and writing samples along with research and documentation examples illustrate concepts and formats presented throughout the book discussion questions and exercises encourage class discussion and facilitate further assignments and practice an entire chapter on collaborative learning helps readers prepare for today s careers chapters 10 writing journals and chapter 11 responsive writing analysis teach the importance and mechanics of effective writing the book also includes essential current and constantly changing information with chapters on research and browsing on the internet as well as tools for evaluating the credibility of internet sites for those interested in developing their reading and writing skills college writing skills with readings 5th edition features langan s renowned clear writing style and wide range of writing assignments and activities that reinforce the four essentials of good writing unity support coherence and sentence skills the reading writing workshop strategies for the college classroom focuses specifically on improving students writing and reading skills for academic success high interest readings from a variety of genres have been chosen to engage students in critical thinking each chapter is organized around a single topic and contains two or three readings journal questions pre reading activities and comprehension and vocabulary activities accompany each reading the reading writing workshop features strategies that successful students use in reading and writing assignments for example students are taught to annotate what they read chapters contain vocabulary strategy and writing workshop sections to help students prepare for more advanced coursework the text focuses on the paragraph as the foundation for academic writing and vocabulary work exposes students to the academic word list the reading writing workshop is an excellent tool for teachers of intermediate to high intermediate students needing practice in college level academic reading and writing exploring college writing reading writing and researching across the curriculum is a rhetoric for first year and sophomore composition courses that uses a constructivist ethnographic approach to introducing students to academic reading writing and researching this text will be especially useful to composition instructors who wish to provide students with both a general overview of academic discourse and an introduction to the purposes audiences and genres of writing across disciplines this textbook works from the premise that the best way to initiate students to academic discourse is to have them explore academic literacies using an ethnographic fieldwork approach to their own institution students are cast in the role of researchers exploring their own experiences as college writers and investigating writing in general education and in their prospective majors the book provides instructors and students sequences of engaging and exploratory writing to learn and learn by doing activities and formal extended writing projects that ask students to interview professors analyze writing assignments and reflect on their own reading writing and researching processes and histories these writing projects connect to students interests experiences and goals and provide them with a sense of purpose and audience for writing the organization of exploring college writing moves students from reflection to investigation part i of the book provides a broad introduction to academic reading writing and researching and introduces students to the rhetorical situation genres and common college thinking and writing strategies part i presents students with prompts that ask them to explore the similarities and differences between high school and college literacy and reflect on their own literacy histories part ii asks students to think critically about their reading writing and researching processes and to explore strategies for college reading writing and researching processes part ii includes prompts that ask students to explore college reading writing and researching processes and practice academic research and making academic arguments part iii introduces students to writing across the curriculum and the idea of disciplines and discourse communities part iii asks students to investigate the reading writing and researching assigned in the general education and major courses at their campus and to consider discipline specific ways of writing and thinking unlike other textbooks exploring college writing uses authentic student and professional texts from across disciplines in a variety of genres such as lab reports scholarly book reviews ethnographies and case studies to guide and inspire the writing process reading and writing are complementary processes that experienced readers and writers engage in recursively unfortunately community colleges today are filled with developing readers and writers who require more guided practice and explicit strategies instruction to be successful in first year composition reading provides students with concrete exemplars of how good writing is structured idea generation when they lack background knowledge and aids in generating complex and thoughtful text that s why writing to read reading to write presents reading writing and critical thinking as engaging and complementary endeavors this focus on reading also gives students who are underprepared for the first year composition course or in the co requisite support sections a chance to practice those skills and re apply them as they develop college level work
