This work builds on the research for my PhD in the Department of Politics and Public Policy at Flinders University of South Australia. Many people and institutions have contributed to complete my study. I cannot mention all of them here, but I have to mention a few: Associate Professor Janet McIntyre, the principal supervisor and academic adviser during my research; Higher Degree Study, she encouraged me to better understand human value, rationality, contexts, and pragmatism in the issues of power and democracy; Dr. Craig Matheson, who has expanded my understanding of rational/irrationality in voting that shaped my work at the early stage; Prof. Dr. Yogi Sugito, the former rector of Universitas Brawijaya; and Prof. Dr. Darsono Wisadirana, dean of Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Universitas Brawijaya, who strongly encouraged me to study abroad. Prof. I. Far Subagio, PhD, and his staffs at the International Office of Universitas Brawijaya had given me administrative and financial supports. My colleagues at the Political Science Department, Universitas Brawijaya, particularly to Dr. Sholih Muadi, Wawan E. Kuswandoro, M. Si, and M. Faishal Aminuddin, M. Si, who voluntarily assisted me with logistic and data supports during the fieldwork. Also to Dwi Budi Santosa, PhD, for his permit to use local budget (APBD) data collected in the project of East Java Public Expenditure Analysis.

This book is a remarkable study of a contemporary Javanese millenarian community based on a careful and nuanced exposition of the ideas of this community and its leader, Embah Wali, who looked to the coming of the just king, Ratu Adil, in the person of the Sultan of Yogyakarta in the Blitar region, East Java, where the community is centred. Embah Wali and his followers created a world in which wayang functioned as the basis for an interpretation of living and being in the world, adept in linguistic manipulation of the Javanese language.

embah wali and his disciples created a world of meaning that was unique to their community the author tells the story of embah wali and his followers describes the phases of their movement and relates these developments to the turbulent social and political events that have occurred in java over more than a half century from the 1930s through the 1980s this first hand study of a javanese messianistic movement contributes to our understanding of javanese rural culture and politics as a javanese from blitar raharjo suwandi was fortunately positioned to be able able to study and interpret this movement in the midst of its most lively period and then to follow its development to the death of its founder
