excerpt from irving stone s love is eternal a play in three acts in act two scene two mary wears a light flowered robe over the slip she wore in scene one presumably she has just risen from her bed and come down to walk in the garden after a rather sleepless night in summer her hair 13 caught into a loose knot at the back of her head with a few stray curls escap ing as if she had brushed it back and stuck a few pins in it but had not really arranged it yet for the day the effect is of informal charm her manner is more quiet and contained than in scene one she is two years older and she has experienced a bitter disappointment about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and
