an ethnographic study on design thinking this book offers profound insights into the popular innovation method centrally exploring how design thinking's practice relates to the vast promises surrounding it through a close study of a Berlin based innovation agency Tim Seitz finds both mundane knowledge practices and promises of transformation he unpacks the relationships between these discourses and practices and undertakes an exploratory movement that leads him from practice theory to pragmatism in the course of this movement Seitz makes design thinking understandable as a phenomenon of what Boltanski and Chiapello described as the new spirit of capitalism that is an ideological structure that incorporates criticism and therefore strengthens capitalism
