colección de historias recreadas en la ciudad de Puebla México las protagonistas son mujeres que se enfrentan a diversos conflictos con sus familias o amantes this book explores the question of female identity and subjectivity through a series of articles on Spanish and Latin American women writers collaborators to this commemorative volume include such internationally known scholars such as Randolph Pope Eunice Myers María Salgado María Elena Bravo etc this volume affords the opportunity to read some fine articles that shed light on the work of various Hispanic women writers Kathleen M Glenn Revista de Estudios Hispánicos

Mexican women writers moved to the forefront of their country's literature in the twentieth century among those who began publishing in the 1970s and 1980s are María Luisa Puga Silvia Molina Brianda Domecq Carmen Boullosa and Angeles Mastretta sharing a range of affinities while maintaining distinctive voices and outlooks these are the women whom Gabriella de Beer has chosen to profile in Contemporary Mexican Women Writers de Beer takes a three-part approach to each writer she opens with an essay that explores the writer's apprenticeship and discusses her major works next she interviews each writer to learn about her background writing and view of herself and others finally de Beer offers selections from the writer's work that have not been previously published in English translation each section concludes with a complete bibliographic listing of the writer's works and their english translations these essays interviews and selections vividly recreate the experience of being with the writer and sharing her work hearing her tell about and evaluate herself and reading the words she has written the book will be rewarding reading for everyone who enjoys fine writing a las mujeres que protagonizan estos relatos el mundo les había reservado una felicidad circunscrita a las paredes de su casa pero mas allá de la dedicación a su marido la cocina y los niños siguen latiendo sus singulares personalidades y llegado el momento reconocerán la señal reservada para que cada una de ellas dé un giro a su vida una se enamora del mar y se marcha en su busca otra pare en el hospital y abandona al marido enamorado de la doctora Ángeles mastretta retrata la fuerza del carácter de mujeres que nacieron con estrella y nos muestra un universo de emancipación y sabiduría en mujeres de ojos grandes lo femenino irrumpe en la cultura para ensanchar sus límites e iluminar el camino la inteligencia y la complicidad que irradia la prosa de Ángeles mastretta convierten estas historias minúsculas en adictivas narraciones de magistral sencillez con un millón de lectores mujeres de ojos grandes constituye una de las muestras más personales y creativas de la literatura actual escrita en español este volumen que recoge las actas del coloquio dedicado a la novelista mexicana Ángeles mastretta tiene por objeto contribuir con la lectura analítica de su obra narrativa y proveer así de un instrumento crítico a los estudiosos with essays by the most authoritative scholars this unique study and reference work is the first english language survey and analysis of mexican cinema the book provides extensive coverage of the delirious melodramas of el indio emilio fernandez and roberto gavaldon many shot by the supremely romantic cinematographer gabriel figueroa and the contemporary successes of jaime humberto hermosillo it also includes the mexican work of luis bunuel the surreal intense dramas of felipe cazals and arturo ripstein the innovative work of paul leduc and much more this lavishly illustrated book also contains notes on over 150 individual films an extensive dictionary of directors and other personalities together with filmographies and an extensive chronicle of mexico's political cultural and cinematic history in the twentieth century elena poniatowska angeles mastretta silvia molina and brianda domecq are mexican writers whose works are beginning to attract substantial critical attention to date their work is not well known in the united states nor can readers obtain much information about the writers themselves by combining in depth interviews with critical essays kay garcia provides an invaluable service to those who would like to have a better understanding of contemporary mexican writing using a feminist literary critical approach garcia explores the connections between the writers lives and their works both the writers and their protagonists have attempted to shape realities for themselves that contradict official discourses and boundaries unlike many writers of fiction today these women give voice to the marginalized elements of mexican society the interviews critical essays and bibliography of broken bars will serve to make their works more accessible to readers in the united states the majority of contributors to out of the mirrored garden are younger writers who have come of age in latin american societies that have been violently shaken by the women's movement presents a study on the subject of sentimental and sexual attitudes as reflected in Spanish contemporary short fiction that focuses on the changing moods, mores, and protocols of sexual expression since the end of Franco's dictatorship.
