the national politics of eu enlargement in the western balkans examines the way in which a number of european union member states including germany and france formulate their policies towards enlargement in the western balkans the six countries of the western balkans albania bosnia and herzegovina kosovo montenegro north macedonia and serbia are on course to become the next members of the european union while there has been a lot of work on the ways in which these countries are preparing for accession and how the eu as a whole approaches the question of expansion very little attention has been paid to how individual eu member states regard enlargement into a region that presents a number of serious challenges including the legacies of the conflicts of the 1990s economic underdevelopment and poor governance focusing on key states such as germany france and italy the neighbouring countries of central and south east europe and britain once a leading advocate of enlargement that is now in the process of leaving the european union this volume casts important new empirical and conceptual light on the diverse motivations that underpin member state attitudes towards eu enlargement the national politics of eu enlargement in the western balkans will be of great interest to scholars of the european union european politics and the politics of the western balkans the chapters were originally published as a special issue of southeast european and black sea studies academic paper from the year 2025 in the subject african studies miscellaneous grade language english abstract the invasion of africa could at best be described as the greatest tragedy to befall africa after the slave trade such invasion was described as colonialism which was planned and executed under the pretext of helping africa to grow and develop for africans lack the wherewithal to do so for themselves colonialism left africa destroyed and backwards in all spheres of nation building the invaders fell so much in love with the resources both human and material that could get without rendering account to anyone even while they left they mechanisms in place to maintain their hold of such resources without prejudice to the good things africa in general and nigeria in particular made out of colonialism which ended years ago it is still a fact that the colonialists did not entirely leave the presence is still felt even in their absence neo colonialism therefore aims to continue the subjugation of africa and africans and nigeria in particular through well organized international organizations and agencies for the benefit of the west this work looks at this ugly phenomenon in the nigerian context and suggests some ways forward at a crucial crossroads between africa and europe the mediterranean and the atlantic and the arab world and the west morocco has long had a special place in u s diplomacy and strategic planning since september 11 2001 morocco s importance to the united states has only increased and the more recent uncertainties of the arab spring and islamist extremism have further increased the value of the moroccan american alliance yet one of the pillars of the legitimacy of the moroccan monarchy its claim to the western sahara remains a point of violent contention home to the largest functional military barrier in the world the western sahara has a long history of colonial conquest and resistance guerrilla warfare and counterinsurgency and evolving strategic thought and its future may prove critical to u s interests in the region
