david j chalmers constructs a highly ambitious and original picture of the world from a few basic elements he returns to rudolf carnap s attempt to do the same and adopts the idea of scrutability according to which reasoning from a limited class of basic truths yields all truths about the world to address central themes in philosophy metaphysics asks questions about existence for example do numbers really exist metametaphysics asks questions about metaphysics for example do its questions have determinate answers if so are these answers deep and important or are they merely a matter of how we use words what is the proper methodology for their resolution these questions have received a heightened degree of attention lately with new varieties of ontological deflationism and pluralism challenging the kind of realism that has become orthodoxy in contemporary analytic metaphysics this volume concerns the status and ambitions of metaphysics as a discipline it brings together many of the central figures in the debate with their most recent work on the semantics epistemology and methodology of metaphysics this volume offers philosophical perspectives on the work of david k lewis one of the most important analytic philosophers of the twentieth century leading philosophers of today discuss his contributions to metaphysics epistemology semantics and ethics the book discusses franz brentano s impact on austrian philosophy it contains both a critical reassessment of brentano s place in the development of austrian philosophy at the turn of the 20th century and a reevaluation of the impact and significance of his philosophy of mind or descriptive psychology which was brentano s most important contribution to contemporary philosophy and to the philosophy in vienna in addition the relation between brentano phenomenology and the vienna circle is investigated together with a related documentation of brentano s disciple alfred kastil in german the general part deals with the ongoing discussion of carnap s aufbau vienna circle lecture by alan chalmers and the philosophy of mind with a focus on physicalism as discussed by carnap and wittgenstein gergely ambrus as usual two reviews of recent publications in the philosophy of mathematics paolo mancosu and research on otto neurath s lifework jordi cat adam tuboly are included as related research contributions this book is of interest to students historians and philosophers dealing with the history of austrian and german philosophy in the 19th and 20th century
